Changing seasons
Chris Hardy sat on his chair and rainbow trout on the Ganaraska River in Port Hope last week. With the first official day of spring just around the corner on March 20, ice melted on the river but Hardy was still able to find a solid patch to park his chair and cast his rod.

By Gail Paquette
A profession that depends on the whims of nature to produce its main product, maple syrup, often referred to as the first crop of spring. The syrup producers across the province.

In Ontario, maple syrup is produced commercially wherever maples are found. The syrup is produced and marketed commercially wherever maples are found. The syrup is produced and marketed.

Often referred to as the first crop of spring, next to Quebec, with a production of almost 1 million litres per year.

By Ms Freeman, a councillor of Quinte West who participated in the SOS (Save Our Services) Day of Action protests had much to say regarding the issue.

Our Services) Day of Action protests had much to say regarding the issue.

By Gail Paquette
We've gone through enough cuts as it is, this is ridiculous. We want our hospital left alone.

Sally Freeman, a councillor of Quinte West who participated in the SOS (Save Our Services) Day of Action protests had much to say regarding the issue.

Our Services) Day of Action protests had much to say regarding the issue.

By Gail Paquette
We've gone through enough cuts as it is, this is ridiculous. We want our hospital left alone.

Sally Freeman, a councillor of Quinte West who participated in the SOS (Save Our Services) Day of Action protests had much to say regarding the issue.

Our Services) Day of Action protests had much to say regarding the issue.

By Gail Paquette
We've gone through enough cuts as it is, this is ridiculous. We want our hospital left alone.

Sally Freeman, a councillor of Quinte West who participated in the SOS (Save Our Services) Day of Action protests had much to say regarding the issue.

Our Services) Day of Action protests had much to say regarding the issue.