

Photojournalism favourites 2014/15

Photo by Daniel Luk

After an incident deemed "friendly fire" in Iraq, Sgt. Andrew Joseph Doiron was driven down the Highway of Heroes following a repatriation ceremony. Canadians gathered to pay respect to the family by waving flags and saluting the passing procession. Present on Nov. 3 were citizens from all around Ontario. Veterans, fire departments, police, ambulance attendants and citizens bundled up along the route from CFB Trenton to Toronto.